

YMLAEN GYDA'N GILYDD / FORWARD TOGETHER

Friday December 13th 2024,

What have we been up to on this very busy penultimate week of term...

Christmas Concerts

The three final KS2 Christmas Concerts 'Jack and the Beanstalk' were very successful this week.

All three concerts were absolutely amazing. We had acting, singing, dancing, welsh, BSL and lots of fun and laughter!

The Year 6 taking the main roles were fantastic, as were Year 3, 4 and 5 who sang every song beautifully in the choir.

Thank you to everyone who came to watch the performances. I am sure that everyone who came will agree that ...

LLWYNCRWN HAS DEFINITELY GOT TALENT!

A special mention to all the staff here at Llwynocrwn who work so hard to get the concerts to the very high standard they always are.

DIOLCH YN FAWR I CHI GYD!

Breakfast with Santa

On Tuesday December 10th Nursery and Reception visited Dragons Den for Breakfast with Santa. Everyone who went had a fabulous, fun-filled morning and really enjoyed themselves. The behaviour of all children was excellent. Thank you to parents and family members who accompanied their children.

We held a Christmas Coffee Morning on Friday December 13th in the Community Room.

Thank you Mrs Hunt for organising this festive event, and thank you to all who attended for a chat, a cuppa and a mince pie.

Christmas Dinner

Christmas Unwrapped

On Friday December 13th all the Year 2 children walked up to the Church for 'Christmas Unwrapped'. They acted out the Christmas Story, decorated cookies and made a Christmas card. What a fun and informative morning Year 2 had. Thank you to all at the Church for our invites.
