

YMLAEN GYDA'N GILYDD / FORWARD TOGETHER

Friday January 23rd 2026

Dear Parents/Carers,

As we reach the end of a very busy, rain-filled week in school, we are grateful for the pupil's continued positivity and resilience. What have we been up to

Family and Community Engagement

Ffrindiau Bach

Our Parent, Baby and Toddler Group every Tuesday continues to be a positive experience for all. We would like to welcome our new members who joined this week, with the youngest being only three days old. We hope that you enjoyed the session as much as we did.

Science Course

The second session of the Science Training for adults and children took place this week. The session was very well attended. This week the group experimented with mixing colours to make new colours. They also made a skittles rainbow by adding water to a skittles pattern.

Upcoming courses

Here are a few training courses we have got planned.

If you would like to attend any of these, please let us know.

Crayola Creativity Week Global Ambassador School

We have great pleasure in announcing that Llwynchrwn has been selected to be a 2026 Crayola Creativity Week Global Ambassador School.

Mrs James entered our school, and told them about all the fabulous creative work which happens here.

This is the reply.....

“Congratulations! We had thousands of incredible applications, and your selection reflects your school’s commitment to giving students every opportunity to explore and build their own unique creative skills and expression.”

In their press release they wrote...

“Crayola announced today its inaugural group of Creativity Week Global Ambassadors, 31 schools from around the world selected to showcase how creativity fuels learning and builds positive school culture. The schools were chosen from more than 1,200 applicants in 11 countries, including the United States, New Zealand, Australia, Canada, Italy, Ireland, United Kingdom, Mexico, Hong Kong, Philippines, and Malaysia. Crayola developed the school ambassador program to amplify the voices of educators and schools that prioritize creativity as an essential part of student development.”

LLONGYFARCHIADAU / CONGRATULATIONS

Mrs James, and to everyone at Llwynchrwn. Only 2 schools from the UK were successful. We definitely are enterprising and creative contributors. Gwych!!
