

YMLAEN GYDA'N GILYDD / FORWARD TOGETHER

Friday May 23rd 2025

Dear Parents/Carers,

What have we been up to ...

A fabulous half term. Pupils have worked very hard and are happy and enthusiastic to learn.

The behaviour of Year 6 at the residential at Llangrannog, and all pupils during any visits is excellent.

This has been acknowledged in our recent ESTYN Inspection.

Here are just a few of the comments:

'Llwyncrwn is a nurturing and inclusive school where both staff and pupils feel happy and safe'

'Pupils articulate their learning enthusiastically and their attitudes to learning are exemplary'

'Staff and pupils form effective working relationships and demonstrate mutual respect....They behave well'

Year 6 Llangrannog visit

Year 6 thoroughly enjoyed their residential weekend at the Urdd Camp at Llangrannog.

The behaviour of all children was exemplary, and they really made the most of all that was on offer in a fun-packed weekend. Here are some of the photographs. You can see more on our Facebook page.

Community Engagement

On Monday May 20th Miss Hughes took our Year 6 Criw Cymraeg to Beddau Library for them to teach welsh to the Monday Club. They taught greetings, welsh vocabulary, hobby games and played bingo to teach numbers. It was a thoroughly enjoyable morning. Diolch Criw Cymraeg a Miss Hughes.

Miss Hughes and the Criw Cymraeg had this lovely email sent to them following their visit. We are very proud of them and all that they do to promote the Welsh language at school and in the community.

Da iawn i chi gyd!

Thank you for this morning, we all enjoyed the session and thought the children did a first class job in giving us help to learn Welsh words and phrases.

The programme was very well organised with each group quickly settling into their roles and their patient, supportive, friendly approach helped us all relax and gain the confidence to get fully involved.

We believe they deserve an excellent mark for this morning and wish them well in the final outcome.

We look forward to, maybe, working with you again in the future.

St Fagans Visit

On Tuesday May 20th Mr Morgan, Mrs Stevens and Mrs Heaven's class visited St Fagans.

The classes spent time in Bryn Eryr, the Celtic Roundhouse, as well as looking at other historic buildings. What an informative and exciting visit they all had.

First Aid and Sign Language Training

On Wednesday May 21st Year 6 had First Aid and Sign Language Training from New Directions.

Everyone thoroughly enjoyed the sessions and learnt a great deal of useful First Aid tips, as well as sign language they can use at school and in the community. Gwych!

Cariad Pet Therapy

We had a visit from the gorgeous Ivy and her owner on Thursday May 22nd who are from Cariad Pet Therapy.

Ivy will be visiting school to work therapeutically with pupils. We are looking forward to Ivy and her owner working with us at Llwynocrwn soon.

Criw Cymraeg visit

Criw Cymraeg visited Ysgol Castellau for a Music Festival/ Gwyl Cerddoriaeth Castellau on Thursday May 22nd. It was a fun few hours, where they listened to welsh music, danced, played, met Seren a Sbarc and made some new friends. Am hwyl/what fun! Diolch yn fawr to Castellau for inviting us.
